YAH DHOOP TUMHARI HAI COLLECTION OF HINDI POEMS

PartridgeIndia. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 130 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.3in. The book yah Dhoop Tumhari Hai is a collection of poems on various topics of life, society and environment. The book tries to express the human sentiments under the adverse condition of individual and social circumstances in simple words and phrases used by common man. It depicts the dialogue between the man and nature through poetry in cotemporary form and style. The contents of book are also contemporary and mostly about the youth struggling with the challenges and opportunities of their time and space. The book describes mainly the life and society of Indian subcontinent in lucid words and verses where economical growth has created inequality and resulted in material and mental poverty as well among the down trodden. The neo rich class, a product of social and political developments has much conflicts and contradictions towards their ethical values creating the social imbalance and turmoil which has given a ground to the writing of the book. This has been expressed in different words and meaning in the poems of the book. The book also describes the relation between man and nature where they share each others happiness and sorrow. The land and river, the sun and moon, the stars and cloud, the wind and mountain, all converse with each other while living together. The poetries of this book make a record of these conversation where they symbolize the eternal love and affection with one and all. This item ships from multiple locations.
