Present: Senators Simon and Wellstone. Opening Statement of Senator Simon Senator Simon. The subcommittee will come to order. I am pleased to be chairing this hearing during National Library Week. Today s hearing will focus on libraries and the information superhighway. Although I still use a vintage Royal manual typewriter, I doubt if my granddaughters ever will. They will grow up using modems, internet, worldwide web systems, and cd-roms. Their use of the technology will be second nature. Yet, if in creating the superhighway we do not include public libraries as an integral vital part at the start, the superhighway will bypass and shut out many of our citizens. We will have created the information haves and have nots. The superhighway should not be linear freeway, but a series of interconnected wagon wheels. At the center of the spokes would be libraries and at the outside are schools, businesses, homes, community centers, hospitals, and so on. Libraries can provide such things as access, education and training, navigation, archiving, and cataloging of information on the superhighway in a unique way. The witnesses before us today will show us what libraries are doing and what they could be doing. I look forward to their testimony. Our...
