Are you experiencing tests and trials Are you ready for a transformation Have you been attacked in the body of Christ, your flesh and marriage, and do you want to be on the victorious side and have a testimony You will learn: How to conquer the tests and trials that come your way. How to have a successful marriage by making adjustments, Gods way. The importance of your role as the husband or wife in your marriage. How to not yield to your flesh or pass judgment. How little things can make a big difference in your life. Reliance on God and His Word. Its better to obey God than to sacrifice. The benefits of dwelling in a secret place of safety. How Jesus sees and rewards those who put others first. To continue walking in love regardless of lifes circumstances. About the Author Pat Hicks, a Christian most of her life believes in being faithful to God and to the church. She and her husband facilitate a marriage class at their local church assembly in Lakeland, Florida. She believes, and ministers and speaks from the heart, truth. She has previously written a story titled: The Preachers Daughter. She loves God, people and loves to pray. Pat also love walking in and having peaceful surroundings. A one word description of her would be -honest. Her prayer and desires are that all people will come into the knowledge of the truth, be saved and walk in the newness of life. She is a living testimony to Gods healing and protecting power. She has helped many to understand that God is for, not against them, His love and goodness toward them, and how theres no one who can...
