Nor can it be said that, amongst all these efforts, missionary enterprises are forgotten. On the contrary, there probably never was a time in which so many agencies were at work in order to bring the power of the Gospel to bear upon those who are indifferent to religious obligations. And these agencies are about as varied as it is possible to imagine. On the one hand, you have such a work as that of the London City Mission, the aim of which is to cover all London with religious visitation; and on the other hand, you have some enterprising gentleman who hires a small room in a back street, paints up a big name upon the door, and sets up in life as a missionary to his neighbours on his own account; combining in...
